THE HOLY FATHER'S PRAYER INTENTIONS FOR JANUARY 2022

For true Human fraternity

We pray for all those suffering from religious discrimination and persecution; may their own rights and dignity be recognized, which originate from being brothers and sisters in the human family.

ORDER OF MASS

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: (Ps 65:4)

All the earth shall bow down before you, O God,
and shall sing to you,
shall sing to your name, O Most High!

PENITENTIAL RITE

Jesus Christ, you were sent by the Father to bring good news to the poor.
Jesus Christ, you came to save us from sin.
Jesus Christ, you were sent to proclaim the grace and mercy of God.

THE GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
You alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading: Isaiah (62:1-5)

The bridegroom rejoices in his bride.

About Zion I will not be silent,
about Jerusalem I will not grow weary,
until her integrity shines out like the dawn
and her salvation flames like a torch.
The nations then will see your integrity, all the kings your glory, and you will be called by a new name, one which the mouth of the Lord will confer.
You are to be a crown of splendour in the hand of the Lord, a princely diadem in the hand of your God;
no longer are you to be named 'Forsaken', nor your land 'Abandoned', but you shall be called 'My Delight' and your land 'The Wedded'; for the Lord takes delight in you and your land will have its wedding.
Like a young man marrying a virgin,

so will the one who built you wed you,
and as the bridegroom rejoices in his bride,
so will your God rejoice in you.

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm: (Ps 95:1-3,7-10. R. v.3)

R. Proclaim the wonders of the Lord among all the peoples.

O sing a new song to the Lord,
sing to the Lord all the earth.
O sing to the Lord, bless his name. R

Proclaim his help day by day,
tell among the nations his glory
and his wonders among all the peoples. R

Give the Lord, you families of peoples,
give the Lord glory and power;
give the Lord the glory of his name. R

Worship the Lord in his temple.
O earth, tremble before him.
Proclaim to the nations: 'God is king.'
He will judge the peoples in fairness. R

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians (12:4-11)

One and the same Spirit, who distributes gifts to different people just as he chooses.

There is a variety of gifts but always the same Spirit; there are all sorts of service to be done, but always to the same Lord; working in all sorts of different ways in different people, it is the same God who is working in all of them.

The particular way in which the Spirit is given to each person is for a good purpose. One may have the gift of preaching with wisdom given him by the Spirit; another may have the gift of preaching instruction given him by the same Spirit; and another the gift of faith given by the same Spirit; another again the gift of healing, through this one Spirit; one, the power of miracles; another, prophecy; another the gift of recognising spirits; another the gift of tongues and another the ability to interpret them.

All these are the work of one and the same Spirit,
who distributes different gifts to different people
just as he chooses.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: (sung) Cf. Jn 6:63,68)

Alleluia, alleluia! Your words are spirit, Lord, and they are life: you have the message of eternal life. Alleluia!

Gospel: John (2:1-11)

*This was the first of the signs given by Jesus:
it was given at Cana in Galilee.*

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee. The mother of Jesus was there, and Jesus and his disciples had also been invited. When they ran out of wine, since the wine provided for the wedding was all finished, the mother of Jesus said to him, 'They have no wine.' Jesus said 'Woman, why turn to me? My hour has not come yet.' His mother said to the servants, 'Do whatever he tells you.' There were six stone water jars standing there, meant for the ablutions that are customary among the Jews: each could hold twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to the servants, 'Fill the jars with water', and they filled them to the brim. 'Draw some out now' he told them 'and take it to the steward.' They did this; the steward tasted the water, and it had turned into wine. Having no idea where it came from – only the servants who had drawn the water knew – the steward called the bridegroom and said, 'People generally serve the best wine first, and keep the cheaper sort till the guests have had plenty to drink; but you have kept the best wine till now.'

This was the first of the signs given by Jesus: it was given at Cana in Galilee. He let his glory be seen, and his disciples believed in him.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and our salvation
he came down from heaven, (please bow)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Memorial Acclamation: (Pauline tradition 1Cor 11:26)

We proclaim your death O Lord, and profess your resurrection, until you come again.

Communion Antiphon (Ps 22:5)

You have prepared a table before me, and how precious is the chalice that quenches my thirst.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Holy Sacrament of the altar. I love you above all things and I passionately desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come spiritually into my soul so that I may unite myself wholly to you now and forever. Amen.

NOTICES

With prayers for John Tudor who sadly passed away, and condolences to Jennifer and family.

+ SUNDAY COLLECTIONS / DONATIONS: For those who do not contribute by standing order, there is the Dona system in Sawston for your contribution by card. The system is very easy to use – simply select the amount you wish to donate and pay by contactless card or via your PIN. If this is the first time you have used the card you will be asked whether you wish to Gift Aid your donation; if you are a taxpayer please say

“Yes” to help the Parish reclaim your tax. If you use the same card again in future you would not be asked the Gift Aid question again. If making a donation by card is impossible for you, we will accept cash or cheque. Your help would be greatly appreciated. Thank you very much for your generosity. Last week you gave:

- OLOL: Standing Orders: £879; Christmas donations: £100; Mass stipends: £170.

- SJF: Standing Orders: £380; Donation: £150; Total cash stipends & donations: £1001.00; Dona: £68.81

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity in 2022 has been prepared by the Monastic Community of Grandchamp in Switzerland. The theme is, “Abide in my love and you shall bear much fruit” (Jn 15:1-17). Today the community has fifty sisters from different church traditions, countries and continents. In their diversity the sisters are a living parable of communion. They remain faithful to a life of prayer, life in community and the welcoming of guests. The sisters share the grace of their monastic life with visitors and volunteers who go to Grandchamp for a time of retreat, silence, healing or in search of meaning. For 2021, the sisters are inviting churches across the world to enter into their tradition of prayer and silence that is rooted in the ancient traditions of the Church catholic. Please visit <https://ctbi.org.uk/week-of-prayer-for-christian-unity-2022/> for more information.

At SJF Community, please contact Mel or Lorretta for ecumenical activities.

PEACE SUNDAY (16th January): Pope Francis wants us to think about “Education, work and dialogue between generations: tools for building lasting peace” He calls on us all to ‘strive daily, with quiet humility and courage, to be artisans of peace’. How can we harness the gifts and energy of all generations in the work of peacemaking? Please visit Cambridge Justice and Peace Facebook for more information. The 2nd Collection this weekend is for Pax Christi, the international Catholic movement for Peace – you can donate online <https://paxchristi.org.uk/about-us/support-us/donation>

St Alban's Catholic Primary School is looking for a Deputy Head. For more details please visit www.stalbans.cambs.sch.uk or contact the administrator on 01223 712148, or email: office@stalbins.cambs.sch.uk.

BISHOP ALAN is still soldiering on, waiting for retirement, and still waiting for a new bishop to be appointed. It is now nearly three years that we have been waiting and we must continue to pray for the right person to be appointed to lead our Diocese. There is Mass intention for a new bishop again this week, asking God to choose a good spiritual father for us.
