ORDER OF MASS

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: (Ps 12:6)

O Lord, I trust in your merciful love.
My heart will rejoice in your salvation.
I will sing to the Lord who has been bountiful with me.

PENITENTIAL RITE

Jesus Christ, you were sent by the Father to bring good news to the poor.
Jesus Christ, you came to save us from sin.
Jesus Christ, you were sent to proclaim the grace and mercy of God.

THE GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
You alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen

A reading from the first book of Samuel (26:2,7-9,12-13,22,23)

Saul set off and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, accompanied by three thousand men chosen from Israel to search for David in the wilderness of Ziph.

So in the dark David and Abishai made their way towards the force, where they found Saul lying asleep inside the camp, his spear stuck in the ground beside his head, with Abner and the troops lying round him.

Then Abishai said to David, 'Today God has put your enemy in your power; so now let me pin him to the ground with his own spear. Just one stroke! I will not need to strike him twice.' David answered Abishai, 'Do not kill him, for who can lift his hand against the Lord's anointed and be without guilt? The Lord forbid that I should raise my hand against the Lord's anointed! But now take the spear beside his head and the pitcher of water and let us go away.' David took the spear and the pitcher of water from beside Saul's head, and they made off. No one saw, no one knew, no one woke up; they were all asleep, for a deep sleep from the Lord had fallen on them.

David crossed to the other side and halted on the top of the mountain a long way off; there was a wide space between them. He called out, 'Here is the king's spear. Let one of the soldiers come across and take it. The Lord repays everyone for his uprightness and loyalty. Today the Lord put you in my power, but I would not raise my hand against the Lord's anointed.'

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm: (Ps 102: 1-4,8,10,12-13. R. v8)

R. The Lord is compassion and love.

My soul, give thanks to the Lord
all my being, bless his holy name.
My soul, give thanks to the Lord
and never forget all his blessings. R.

It is he who forgives all your guilt,
who heals every one of your ills,
who redeems your life from the grave,
who crowns you with love and compassion. R.

The Lord is compassion and love,
slow to anger and rich in mercy.
He does not treat us according to our sins
nor repay us according to our faults. R.

As far as the east is from the west
so far does he remove our sins.
As a father has compassion on his sons,
the Lord has pity on those who fear him. R.

A reading from the first letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians (15:45-49)

The first man, Adam, as scripture says, became a living soul; but the last Adam has become a life-giving spirit. That is, first the one with the soul, not the spirit, and after that, the one with the spirit. The first man, being from the earth, is earthly by nature; the second man is from heaven. As this earthly man was, so are we on earth; and as the heavenly man is, so are we in heaven. And we, who have been modelled on the earthly man, will be modelled on the heavenly man.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: (sung) (Jn. 13:34)

Alleluia, alleluia!

I give you a new commandment:
love one another just as I have loved you,
says the Lord.

Alleluia!

Gospel: Luke (6:27-38)

Jesus said to his disciples: 'I say this to you who are listening: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who treat you badly. To the man who slaps you on one cheek, present the other cheek too; to the man who takes your cloak from you, do not refuse your tunic. Give to everyone who asks you, and do not ask for your property back from the man who robs you. Treat others as you would like them to treat you. If you love those who love you, what thanks can you expect? Even sinners love those who love them. And if you do good to those who do good to you, what thanks can you expect? For even sinners do that much. And if you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what thanks can you expect? Even sinners lend to sinners to get back the same amount. Instead, love your enemies and do good, and lend without any hope of return. You will have a great reward, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he himself is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked.

'Be compassionate as your Father is compassionate. Do not judge, and you will not be judged yourselves; do not condemn, and you will not be condemned yourselves; grant pardon, and you will be pardoned. Give, and there will be gifts for you: a full measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over, will be poured into your lap; because the amount you measure out is the amount you will be given back.'

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and our salvation
he came down from heaven, (please bow)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Memorial Acclamation: (Pauline tradition 1Cor 11:26)

We proclaim your death O Lord, and profess your resurrection, until you come again.

Communion Antiphon (Ps 9: 2-3)

I will recount all your wonders,
I will rejoice in you and be glad,
and sing psalms to your name, O Most High.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Holy Sacrament of the altar. I love you above all things and I passionately desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come spiritually into my soul so that I may unite myself wholly to you now and forever. Amen.

THE SYNODAL PATHWAY: WORDS FOR OUR JOURNEY: WELCOME

The word welcome is from old English: a person whose coming is pleasing or received gladly.
Welcome is a word of action to be put into practice in our everyday lives. Jesus welcomed the poor, the sick, the marginalised like the lepers and those possessed. He was welcomed into the home of Mary and Martha and in the parable of the prodigal son the father welcomed his son back with great rejoicing.

When we are welcomed in a home, place of work or in a group of friends we are eager to return.
Welcome is a very important and ongoing part of our church life and especially in our own parish community. A smile of welcome to someone new to the parish who may be just a visitor or a new member will encourage them to feel a part of the parish family.

Since Covid-19 and various lockdowns welcome has been difficult and so many groups have been discontinued but with new vigour now is the time (cautiously) to start up again with children's liturgy, pastoral council, coffee after Sunday Mass and to discover new ways to bring our parish community together.

As Jesus told us in Matthew, the last judgement: "I was a stranger and you made me welcome ; When did we see you a stranger and make you welcome ? In truth I tell you, in so far as you did it to one of the least of my brethren you did it to me

May we make WELCOME our way of life at home, at work and especially in our parish.

Prayer:

Help us Holy Spirit to work together to be a "welcome" people by showing our mercy and love to all as Jesus taught us. Guide us to be sensitive to the needs of those that we meet every day, may we make them welcome as Jesus did.

NOTICES

In Memoriam: All who have gone before us, especially those whose anniversaries occur around this week: Alexander, Michael Robertson, David Williams, John Arnold, David Boot, Wilfred Vincent Rice, Bernard Ward, Pamela Hamilton, and Muriel Jarvis.

Our condolences to the bereaved families, and our prayers for Sheila Pringle, and Peter Antill. May their souls, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace,

FINANCE: Thank you very much for your generosity. Last week you gave:

- OLOL: Standing Orders: £890; Dona: £; Mass Stipends: £50; Cash: £195; Dona: £88.13; Second Collection: £250; Donation: £100; Stole fee: £231.

- SJF: Standing Orders: £404; Mass stipends: £5; Dona: £54.07; Donation: £100; Church rent: £60.

Second collections: As you know, we contribute to a range of good causes through second collections. However, in the current circumstances this is not as easy as it used to be. Whilst there will be an opportunity to contribute to each second collection on the appropriate date, you may wish to contribute to all of the collections for the year, either by a standing order or a one-off donation. We will spread such offerings equally across the list of second collections, unless you tell us that you would like to distribute your gift differently.

If you donate through a Standing Order or one-off bank transfer please make sure to include "2nd coll" in the reference. If you contribute through cash or cheque in an envelope please label the envelope accordingly. If you donate via Dona, please send Fr John an email. Thank you for your support

Synodal Pathway in our Parish:
